MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 19.

THE CZAR'S SUPERSTITION .- The Czar, it has been understood, has a superstitious horror of war, and it is to this circumstance that Prince Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, owes the prolongation of his reign, at least so say the political gossips in London. The Em peror of all the Russias has been warned by some of the modern soothsayers, upon whose utterances he seems to place reliance, that he and his reign will come to an end during a war, and he dreads the beginning of hostitities. The fate of the present Bulgarian regime may be said to depend upon Germany, and the existing condition of things will, it is believed, endure until the meeting of the Czar and the Emperor William at Stettin, or, more accurately speaking, until the date fixed for that meeting, for there is strong doubt of its ever taking place. Meanwhile the Czar's desire to prolong peace as long as possible postpones a crisis which even his inaction cannot defer much longer The diplomatic agents of Italy, Austria and England in Bulgaria show a significant de-gree of fraternization, while Turkey remains inactive to the point of stupidity. A decisive action by Germany would precipitate the

THE LARGEST NUMBER.—The trip of the steamship City of Rome, which arrived at New York from Liverpool Friday afternoon, was remarkable in bringing the largest number of cabin passengers that ever came across together. There were 717 of them, and 509 in the stoerage, a total of 1,226. Ad-ding 294, officers and crew, there were 1,520 persons on board during the stormy voyage. The next best record for cabia passengers was made by the Umbria two weeks ago, when she brought over 648.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT .- A terrible accident occurred Saturday at the Bellaire bridge, four miles below Wheeling, W. Va., on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. While Fore-man Ed. Duffy and his gang of workmen were repairing the bridge, a yard engine crossing from Renwood to Bellaire came swiftly upon them and knocked Duffy and two of his men into the river bed below. All three were instantly killed.

"What is Woman's Worth"!

asked a fair damsel of a crusty old bachelor He did not know, so she said: "W. O. man" (double you, O man). But a woman feels worth little if disease has invaded her sysworth little if disease has invaded her sys-tem and is daily sapping her strength. For all female weaknesses, Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" stands normaled. It cures the complaint and builds up the sys-tem. ADVICE TO MOTHER

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for chil-Mrs. Wisslow's Scottling Syring, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griphing
